"The good reputation of the Tax Collector's Office is not for me but through the power of Prayer." - Dennis W. Hollingsworth, C.F.C. St. Johns County Tax Collector's Office

"When Brother Ken first approached me about the intercessory prayer for business, my first thought was Why hasn't anyone done this sooner? I immediately sent him information about one of my agents who was struggling in her new positions. Shortly thereafter she had her first sale. Since then she has been doing fantastic." -

"I am very thankful for The Marketplace. How refreshing it is to be offered prayer by caring believers in the Body of Christ. Keep up the good work!" -

Norman Sapp Accord Insurance Network

"I have been in business since 1976 and have been making enough to pay the bills and grow at a moderate rate. I had met Ken and when he told me about the prayer intercession, I was interested in any type of help because I wanted my practice to grow. Since the prayer intercession there has been a marked difference in my practice and I have been in a position to turn away some marginal clientele. Praying alone helps but when two or more pray together, the miracles begin to happen." - Michael Bryant Attorney

"I am so very thankful for the support of the Marketplace. The power of others praying has encouraged me in many ways, especially in my business." -

Jean Gordon Shaklee Distributor

"It has only been through my faith in Jesus Christ our Savior that I have been able to experience true serenity and happiness. I am always amazed at the rewards I receive in life by simply praying. "Thy will be done." -

How can a church have the most impact

What is the true scope of influence of any church? Where do people spend the majority of their time? Where do Christians and non-Christians have to meet for 50-70% of their waking hours? It is not within the church, church communities or church programs-It is within their workplace. Christians must see God's agenda for their work-lives and understand that their workplace is THEIR ministry.

"I believe one of the next great moves of God is going to be through believers in the workplace."
-- Dr. Billy Graham

Ezekiel 22:30 NIV 0- " I looked for a man among them, says the Lord who would build up the wall and stand before me in the gap on behalf of the land..."
This is the calling of The Marketplace, to raise up a standard in behalf of the business and governmental agencies in workplace. That the blessings of the Lord may rain down upon our community, and those surrounding us.

Ministering to the workplace throughout St. Johns and the surrounding counties.

Our Vision

Our Vision is to facilitate the empowering of men and women in the business community to realize and obtain their full potential as active participants in the Kingdom of God. As Bob Buford, author of the book Halftime puts it, we need "To transform the latent energy in American Christianity into active energy." Our vision is to see this in St. Johns and the surrounding counties.

Mission Statement

The Marketplace - Christian Professionals Resource, provides intercessory prayer for those in the business and government community within St. Johns and the surrounding counties.

About Rev. Ken

Ken was called from the business world after 23 years, to start a church in Springfield, Missouri. He and his wife, Norma, pastored for several years and God then called them to St. Augustine, Florida. Here they have been ministering to pastors, holding weekly prayer meetings with pastors from all denominations over the last ten years. Ken is a past President of the Ministerial Alliance, and chaplain of the St. Johns County Detention Center for the last 15 years. Both he and Norma are volunteer chaplains at Flagler Hospital. Their experience in both business and ministry equips them to bring prayer and counseling to the workplace for the glory of God.

Our Key Objectives Are

1. Consult with our business partners to determine needs.
2. Minister to and provide intercessory prayer for spouses, families, employees, business associates, and business issues.
3. Have our dedicated, mature, prayer intercessors confidentially intercede for your partners and their requests.
4. Provide group meetings for luncheon fellowship, prayer/discussions, and workshops to establish accountability, to gain insights from others concerning biblical application with the community and to build relationships with the Lord and with each other.
5. Provide a source of spiritual strength from which our partners may draw.

We are very grateful for your prayers for this ministry as well. May God richly bless you as you seek for more of Him.
